Stockholm, June 8th, 1915.

On May 18, all Jews were exported (expelled) from Governments Kovno, Kurland and part of Suvalk, Not a soul was left. Even sick people from hospitals were included. Time for leaving was given eight to thirty hours. Exportation (expulsion) was carried out, in freight trains. Who could not find accommodation in cars had to take horses or walk. They were not allowed to bury bodies of people who died on way. Cities, little towns nearest to disaster overcrowded. Meed beyond description. Communities containing hundred Jewish households shelter four to six thousand people. Number of exported (expelled) about 200,000. Prior exported (expelled) from different places 100,000. more. On May 23rd order was given allowing Jews to return to their places, conditionally upon giving hostages what (which) was declined as dishonoring nation. Feeding of exported (expelled) requires $1,000,000 Rubles per month. Funds of Russian Jewish Committees exhausting (exhausted). Urgently needed immediate help from American Jews. Send without delay representatives of American Jewish Relief Committee. Wire.

Rabbi Ehrenpreis.
